25 Mar-Moose's Crockpot/Shuffleboard contests

30 Mar-Lincoln Days at JOCO fairgrounds, cost $30, 6 meals available

2 Apr-April Fools Poker Run

5 Apr-Capitol Run for Local 33

Mr. Haas made last Capitol Run

Pat-none of the bills were in committee and couldn't make headway

Sarge-AMA & MRF are against because of insurance bill which has $100 mil life insurance attached which makes it hard to pass. Get your voices heard!

Vice-Larry C; Give 100% to your position with Local 33 to represent us, or don't be elected to a position. If you can't make it to meetings and such get a hold of your alternative and make sure someone is there to represent us. We need people who can be active. If you feel you cannot fulfill your duties step down and let someone else do the job.

Sec-Nancy; Minutes of last month's minutes were sent to Sarge. He sent them out to members. Some are having problems receiving them. Sarge will be working on the problem. A hard copy is available through Sarge for review. Minutes were accepted by those that read them and submitted.

Tres-Donna; General Fund is down.

General fund-$1,193.37

AAF-Still have gun giveaway deposits

We still have to pay out $930 for insurance and we still have Lincoln Days. This will leave us with $200 in the General Fund.

Adopt a Family-$3,127.55

We might have to shuffle some money from Adopt a Family to help out the General Fund for a little while

Memb-Deanna; Not in attendance due to family issues.

Membership rosters need to be returned to Dallas. Even if there are no changes they need to be returned.

Vice chairman's report- Dean Singleton, good news. Insurance went down, it was $100 per event it is now $75 per event. From $1 mil to $2 mil and April 4th is when these prices take effect.

Leg. Report- Bills 535 helmet bill is dead, 576 out of rules committee (2 yrs experience) is moving, other bills are not moving. They think they have plenty of time but it's not looking good.

COC Report-most 1 per centers have quit. All that's left is Veterans clubs and the like. Have a helmet bill and the profiling bill that they are discussing. Tony Sheppard told them that if all they are going to talk about is Legislative issues, then they need to join FORR because that is what FORR does. They do not think the COC will last much longer.

Motor Cycle Awareness- coordinator is working on making things more accessible on the website, modot.mo.gov/puv. Can also order safety signs at this site. We can only get signs. Awareness Ride is Apr 22nd and 23rd. you need to get safety forms in. in 2016 to now there were 5 motorcycle related deaths. So far in 2017 there has only been one.

Product Line- Shelly is not at Local 33 meeting today but she needs next year's pictures in by Sept 30th.

Chairman- He's still looking for a general office manager. One man put in for the Webmaster and the office is closed Mar 22nd. Probably going to break up all duties Dallas does. It's still up for grabs.

Feud Seminar was last Saturday, 90 some odd people showed up and the profit and loss will be available at the next CC meeting.

Homecoming- committee decided we are not going to have a Rally this year because time is running out and we don't have a venue. Lori Singleton jumped up and said she was looking at a few places. She has 2 places and Joe Whitmer came up with one,

Three options are-
